TO-DAY AT THE EXPOSITION.

A Delegation of Residents Expoted from Southern Oregon.

Excellent Music Yesterday Afternoon—The First Stock Show is Open To-day—Other Notes of Interest.

To-day is Jacksonville, Ashland, Grant's Pass, Lakeburg and Southern Oregon day at the exposition. The prospect for a large and representative delegation from that section is excellent. Among the vanguard were J. L. Stewart, one of the heaviest orchardists in the state, who resides near Medford on an orchard of 220 acres. Mr. Stewart, who has an orchard of 140 acres near the same place, the former having over 20,000 trees, the latter about 10,000 trees, Rev. J. R. Bell, of the Roseburg Review, and others. Many others are expected down to-day, and they will be warmly welcomed.

A pleasing, and, to Signor Liberti, as well to his hosts of friends, very gratifying incident occurred on Friday evening the occasion of the Wagner concert. At the close of the first number a well known gentleman stepped up to the stage and presented to the master with a very beautiful laurel wreath to which was attached streamers of watered silk on which was painted by hand in oil color the following complimentary inscription: "To Signor Liberti and his wife, the most beautiful couple of the Pacific Coast, the most beautiful couple of the Pacific Coast, the most beautiful couple of the Pacific Coast."

Saturday night a gentleman stepped on the stage and presented to Liberti a floral anchor of exquisite design and workmanship. Attached to the anchor was a card bearing the following inscription: "The Italian Society of the Pacific Coast, the most beautiful couple of the Pacific Coast, the most beautiful couple of the Pacific Coast."

Liberti and his wife, who are held by exposition-going, and day after day and night after night have generously responded to the repeated demands for encores in the most graceful and dignified manner. But do those who insist upon this extra labor being put upon these hard-working gentlemen realize that there is such a thing as raising a free horse to death? There can be no possible objection to enthusiastic applause and the expression of unbounded satisfaction at the excellence of the work furnished. But ten numbers is enough, except under extraordinary circumstances, to ask of such a company of players in one afternoon or evening, and the audience should let it be sufficient for Liberti, on behalf of himself and associates, to bow his thanks when a storm of applause shows how highly all are pleased with his magnificent work.

THE MUSIC YESTERDAY.

In spite of a heavy rainstorm, which commenced yesterday about 1 P. M., the galleries of the hall were well filled in the afternoon, and three hours of very delightful music were enjoyed by those present. The program was as follows: "The Wagner Concert," by Signor Liberti, Thomas, Weber, Mendelssohn, Liszt, Verdi, Gounod, Wagner and Meyer.

The well known trio consisting of Signor Liberti, Thomas, Weber, Mendelssohn, Liszt, Verdi, Gounod, Wagner and Meyer. The well known trio consisting of Signor Liberti, Thomas, Weber, Mendelssohn, Liszt, Verdi, Gounod, Wagner and Meyer. The well known trio consisting of Signor Liberti, Thomas, Weber, Mendelssohn, Liszt, Verdi, Gounod, Wagner and Meyer.

THE CONCLUDING NUMBERS, introducing themselves from "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," "Heaven's Chorus," "Ave Maria," "Softly and Tenderly," "The Rose Tree," and "Hallelujah Chorus," was a fitting finale to the pleasures of the day. During the concert the committee on the "Monastery Bells" was presented by request.

THE STOCK SHOW AND FAT STOCK SHOW.

The stock show throws open its gates to the public this morning at 8 o'clock. The only entrance is at the head of Yamhill street. All the domestic animals are represented in the show, and the exhibiting adjacent to the great exposition of the N. P. & A.

RE GIVES OREGON ALL PRAISE.

Mr. W. F. Spencer Highly Compliments the Great Whitest State.

It is no new thing for Oregonians, after an absence of a few years in other states of the Union or in other countries, to return satisfied to remain and to sing the praises of Oregon and its superiority over any and all other states and countries, but there are few who can do this subject the justice or pitch the keynote so high as Mr. W. F. Spencer, who has lately returned from a four years' residence in the East and South, the greater portion of the time having been spent in the cotton and insipid regions of the "Carolina."

He avers that the old saying that "Oregon beats the world for big red apples and rosy cheeked girls" is true to the letter and the spirit. He says, without fear of contradiction, that Oregon beats the whole country for fruit. He has tasted the best peach, the best strawberry sections of the South, and since his return has seen finer peaches grown in the Willamette valley than any produced in the South, and it was formerly thought that peaches could not be raised in the valley.

In some parts of South Carolina they raise good apples. The trees attain a great size, the best apple is called the "Liberator."

Twigs, but it does not begin to compare with the Bonnets of Northern Spy apples of Oregon. As for cherries, plums and pears, Oregon is away ahead of anything he has seen. The best pear raised in the South is the Cobb, but it is inferior compared with our Bartlett or Winter Nollis or many others. As to strawberries, Oregon is unequalled, and there is no use of making comparisons—and so Mr. Spencer goes on through the whole catalogue of fruits and vegetables. He tells some funny stories about the manner and customs of the colored brethren down South. They had a law passed in one section prohibiting any one from firing a gun or pistol within 100 yards of any residence between sunset and sunrise, unless at a ferocious and dangerous animal, or an officer in the discharge of his duty. In a certain Georgia, the high license system was tried. The price of a license is $10.00, which is more money than has been owned by any one in the county at one time. There are no licensed liquor dealers there, but any one can have his tipple of any kind shipped to him by the jugful, so that there have been no deaths from drink in that county.

GIBBS IS STILL AT LARGE.

The Condition of Young McDevitt Criticized—The Father's Case More Favorable.

H. E. Gibbs the negro porter who shot Tom McDevitt and his son, is still a fugitive from justice. Although his capture was kept up all day yesterday, not a clue was found whereby the officers can trace his movements. It is the opinion of the detectives that either Gibbs is still in hiding in this city or else he was smuggled off on the Northern Pacific. He is a very clever and crafty fellow, and it is a matter of a few days before he is caught. There was some talk yesterday of issuing the reward offered for his apprehension. The mayor, sheriff and chief of police held a conference on the matter, and some action will be taken in the near future. The condition of Mr. McDevitt and his son remains practically unchanged. The boy still is in a very critical condition, his life hanging by a very slender thread. He is partially conscious, but he suddenly brightens up for a few moments and then falls back into unconsciousness. His mind has become so suddenly bright that he is now able to talk. He is very weak, but he is now able to talk. He is very weak, but he is now able to talk. He is very weak, but he is now able to talk.

ROLLED IN THE MUD AND ROBBED.

Harry G. Carter's Experiences With a Footpad Who Robbed Him of $50.

At an early hour yesterday morning a man giving his name as Harry G. Carter called at the police station, stating that he had been robbed of $50 near the corner of Second and Adams streets. The man stated that he was a traveling salesman, and was on his way to the city. He stated that he was a traveling salesman, and was on his way to the city. He stated that he was a traveling salesman, and was on his way to the city. He stated that he was a traveling salesman, and was on his way to the city.

AN UNGRATEFUL EMPLOYEE.

He Stole From His Employer and Leads Him a Merry Chase.

A young man named Sam Hawkins until several months ago in the employ of Ira F. Powers, has been arrested for a number of years committed to the city jail. He is a very general desire again to leave Signor Liberti in the tumbrel and beautiful "Al Bion," from "Providence." In this number, as rendered by the orchestra, the orchestra is reminded for the first time in many years of the faultless vocalism of Signor Liberti, who, as a singer, has been a very general desire again to leave Signor Liberti in the tumbrel and beautiful "Al Bion," from "Providence."

OUR JOSEPH ON BRITISH SOIL.

He Is Seen by D. M. Dunne and Captain Jim Carroll at Victoria.

Mr. D. M. Dunne, who has just returned from a trip to Victoria, reports having met Mr. Joseph Holladay there. He was looking well, and had a new and shiny hat, and a new suit. He took Mr. Dunne aside and in a confidential manner asked him "What do you want you for over there?" On being assured that Mr. Dunne had not got away with anything, he then, he seemed relieved, and gave a history of his troubles in which some remarks were made about some of our citizens which would not do him credit.

INTERESTING "HOCUSIERS."

Many on the Point of Emigrating to This State.

They Have a Fair Country, but Think the "Wobfoot" State Better—Hog Cholera Prevented an Alarming Extent.

An old resident of this city who has just returned from an extended visit to his old home at LaPorte, Ind., in conversation with an Oregonian reporter yesterday, said: "While in LaPorte and surrounding country, I was greatly surprised at the interest at present taken in Oregon. A great many were on the point of selling out and coming to Oregon, and I was kept very busy answering questions and presenting facts relative to our delightful country. The work of our board of immigration is being felt, and old acquaintances came miles to see me on hearing that I was in LaPorte. The truth is Oregon and Washington are about the only western states to which people are flocking. While in that country I saw none of the life experienced here. Times are very dull there and although the country is good, the people do not seem to have the push and energy that prevail in Oregon. The city of LaPorte, with its 10,000 population, is surrounded by a rich country, but it has not improved as much during the past sixteen years as Portland has during the past six months."

I gave you two illustrations of how a man will "size up" a strange place. When I first arrived in LaPorte an old acquaintance up to me to ask the reputation of being a practical farmer, and to see if I was a "Wobfoot." I gave him a general outline of the country, and its resources, and he determined to "size up" the country. He arrived in LaPorte during the week that the city was filled with smoke from the forest fires, and he saw the smoke from the forest fires. He saw the smoke from the forest fires, and he saw the smoke from the forest fires.
